*Actor, filmmaker, speaker lends support to AmeriFace

Hollywood, CA – Jesus Nebot, founder and CEO of Zokalo Entertainment and Love Empowerment Seminars, is an award-winning filmmaker as well as a renowned inspirational speaker. Nebot has lectured in over 30 American states and ten countries around the world for educational, cultural, non-profit, business and civic organizations. He hopes to bring world-wide attention to AmeriFace’s mission to provide information and emotional support to individuals with facial differences, such as cleft lip and palate.

“There is nothing more joyful than giving,” Nebot says. “It always brings a beautiful smile to my face. And when I give to AmeriFace, I have the additional joy of knowing that my contribution will bring other beautiful smiles to the children that need them the most. Literally!”

AmeriFace is a national organization working with patients and families to ensure access to reconstructive plastic surgery and support for the psychosocial needs of those with facial differences. Services are always free to families.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) reports that approximately one in every 600 babies born in the United States is born with a cleft. A cleft occurs when sections of the upper lip and/or roof of the mouth do not fuse during early development of the fetus, leaving a large gap in the bone and tissue requiring reconstructive surgery over a period of many years.

“Through his words and deeds, Jesus epitomizes concern and caring for others. We are pleased to have him support our organization and its mission,” said Dr. David Reisberg, president of AmeriFace.

Nebot’s mission has always been to inspire personal and social healing and transformation through his speaking engagements, training seminars and artistic endeavors, including writing, producing, directing and acting.

He encourages others to join him in supporting AmeriFace.

About Jesus Nebot

After receiving his B.A. degree with honors from the Royal Academy of Dramatic Arts in Madrid, Jesus completed his training at the Lee Strasberg Theatre Institute in New York on scholarship from the Spanish Government. He then became internationally known for his starring roles in the top-rated television series’ “LA LOBA HERIDA” and “DIVINA OBSESSION,” distributed by Warner Brothers International in 29 countries. Seeking to expand his career Jesus came to the United States in 1995 where he was granted the green card as a “person with extraordinary ability in the arts.” In 2000, Jesus launched his own production company by the name of Zokalo Entertainment with the intent of making films that were socially relevant and thought-provoking. Zokalo’s first production was the critically acclaimed feature “NO TURNING BACK” picked up for distribution by Universal after its successful theatrical release in Europe and in the United States. Nebot’s recent acting credits include guest-starring roles in the Fox EMMY WINNING SERIES’ “NYPD BLUE” and “ARRESTED DEVELOPMENT.” His website provides information on all of his projects, www.JesusNebot.com
